The Liturgical gifts today are given by Iain Renfrew in celebration of Iain and Sonja's third wedding anniversary on 29th July.

Alice Pitney's funeral will take place at The Oaks Crematorium on Friday 31st July at 11.30. All are welcome to attend the Oaks and afterwards at the Garden room at the Emsworth Hotel. Please let Revd Sandra know if you are thinking of attending. Also, the family would like informal dress – bright colours and no flowers, donations to the Cinnamon Trust. There is a sheet to write your name on at the back of the Church if you wish to attend.

The PCC discussed a report on our organ which highlighted that many electrical parts need replacing and we are hoping to raise funds to do the most urgent work. If you felt able to assist, any donations, small or great, would be most appreciated.

Father God, you sent your Son, Jesus to give up everything for us: may the gifts we bring, whether great or small, be the very best that we can offer and a sign of our grateful love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Refreshments in the hall after the service on Sunday is an important part of St George's life. Could you possibly spare the time to join the band of volunteers who prepare and serve the drinks? I think it's quite fun saying a cheery hello to so many friendly faces at the hatches. You would be shown how to do it and there are lots of good mentors. Please speak to me if you can help. Thank you. Richard!

RIDE AND STRIDE - 12th September. Hampshire and the Islands Historic Churches Trust is a charity whose purpose is to provide financial support for church building and fittings repairs. Their big fundraising event, Ride and Stride, will be on 12th Sept. this year. Sponsored participants visit multiple churches across Hampshire on foot, by bike or car. Please could you spare a couple of hours to between 1000 and 1800 that day so that St Georges can provide tea and coffee to visitors? A sign-up sheet for volunteers will be at the back of church.

Confirmation sessions are taking place at 11:15am after the Sung Eucharist on Sunday mornings at Church. For further information please see Fr Charles or Rev Sandra.
